

OTRONIA

PATAGONIA EXTREMA

Bodega Otronia is located in the heart of Patagonia at parallel 45°33', probably the last southern frontier to grow vineyards.

The heterogeneity of the soils, the permanent winds and the cold and dry climate guarantee a healthy organic grape production.

45 RUGIENTES · MERLOT

2020

This wine was made with grapes from the block 22, which has one hectare of Merlot with a density of 7000 plants and a combination of alluvial soils with rocks and calcareous material from the Sierra Silva and clay deposits of lagoon origin.

The grapes were harvested on April 1st and the wine was made in concrete tanks through spontaneous fermentation and macerated for 17 days.

Aging was made in untoasted French oak foudres for 20 months.

COLOR: Intense ruby red

NOSE: Aromas of fresh red fruit, quince jelly, spicy notes of sweet paprika, black pepper and menthol.

PALATE: Wine of good freshness, expressive, balanced and elegant with a persistent finish.
